

Miss Kissel Reaches Final in Tennis Tilt

Middle States Champion Defeats Player from Mexico City.

NORWEGIAN DISPLAYS SPECTACULAR GAME

Paired with Throckmorton Miss Bjursted Wins Mixed Doubles Match.

By FRED HAWTHORNE.

Miss Kissel, Middle States champion, went into the final round of the annual women's lawn tennis tournament for the championship of New Jersey yesterday by defeating Mrs. C. V. Perkins, Mexico City champion, at 6-3, 6-3, on the clay courts of the Westchester Athletic Club.

This morning at 10:50 o'clock Miss Kissel, Middle States champion, met Miss Florence Ballin, of the West Tennis Club, in the other semi-final bracket, and the winner will meet Miss Bjursted for the championship at 2:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

The pair reached the final round in the women's doubles. Mrs. William H. Fitch and Miss Edith Handy coming through at the drivers' score of 6-1, 6-0, on the clay courts of the Westchester Athletic Club. Miss Kissel and Miss Marie Wagner and Mrs. Homer S. Green and Mrs. Lewis Gouverneur Morris are in the semi-final brackets in the lower half, and will meet this morning, the winners to play Mrs. Pouch and Miss Handy for the championship in the afternoon.

Big Crowd Watches Play.
A large crowd gathered at the courts all day, but the spectators came in the morning, particularly in the afternoon. The match between Miss Kissel and Miss Marie Wagner and Mrs. Homer S. Green and Mrs. Lewis Gouverneur Morris was a close one, but Miss Kissel and Miss Marie Wagner won at 6-4, 6-3, but without a keen struggle for the points.

Throckmorton also rose to great heights, although his play was a trifle erratic, owing to the many chances he took. His service was going like a bullet, however, and his terrific smashes rattled through the opposing court with deadly results.

Miss Rayner and Fisman, although playing together for the first time, were brilliant individually and won a majority of their points without the aid of their partner. Miss Rayner, in the second set, went into the rallies with great speed, taking shots on the full volley and sometimes scoring with a series of smashes squarely between Bjursted and Throckmorton.

Miss Rayner shines. When left to herself at the net position, Miss Rayner brought off many brilliant shots for the corners for the full volley, again giving evidence that with another season of tournament experience, she will develop into one of the strongest of the women players.

Even though coupled with so fine a player as Throckmorton, Miss Bjursted had more winning shots and less errors to her credit than the usual junior champion. Fisman used to gain his points by centering in attack on the girl from Norway, but Bjursted outdressed him, scoring repeatedly with a wonderful backhand shot, and she also had a better of the various volleying changes from the net position.

When Throckmorton chose to let himself out and exerted control over the game, his play was such that the opposing side could not even get their feet on the ball. He also tricked his opponents out of position with a sudden, crafty softening of his stroke, and on the other hand, made himself a terror to the "kill".

Miss Wagner and Hinck, tried tournament players though they are, had a desperate battle on their hands in a match with Miss Kissel and Miss Rayner. Fisman and Hinck, who were paired together, were also in a close struggle, but Miss Wagner and Hinck won at 8-6, 6-4.

NAPOLEON DIRECT SCORES STRAIGHT HEAT VICTORIES

St. Frisco Also Triumphs in Grand Circuit Races at Columbus.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 21.—Napoleon Direct and St. Frisco, with T. W. Murphy driving in place of the disabled Edward Geers, this afternoon scored straight heat victories in the Columbus Grand Circuit races, for which they were favorites.

Napoleon Direct raced in front in each heat of the free-for-all pace, the first being slow, but the second was in 2:00 1/4, in spite of a cool wind that the horses had to face through the third quarter. The first half was done in one minute.

St. Frisco was not forced to beat 2:06 1/4 during the Capital City State trot, the real contest in this event being for the place, that Miss Perfection took away from Bacchi and Harry J. S.

Diamond, winner of the 2:10 pace, was outbraced through the stretch in the first heat by Peter G., which was fourth in the second heat. The judges unsent W. L. Snow and put C. Valentine in charge of Peter G. for the third heat. Snow was allowed to drive again in the fourth heat. Diamond was the first choice.
